Happy New Year!

As it has been a two day week our bloggers have decided to let me have a turn at completing this so I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you all back to Diamond Class. I hope you had a lovely break, read most days and feel ready for the new term ahead. The weekly homework is detailed below, I really appreciate all the hard work you put into this and your ongoing support.

P.S. The bloggers will be back with you next week.

Homework:

English

Our new vocabulary word for the week is: disrepute. Please find out what it means and use it in a sentence (this should be written in your planner). You could also discuss how you could use it in class so you achieve our challenge next week.

Please practice the spelling words in your folder.

Topic

To kick off our new topic you are to research a petrifying punishment used previously in Britain and present your findings in as creative a way as you would like to. Remember to collect detailed information about it so the whole class can benefit from your home learning. I suggest you write a minimum of two paragraphs. Due Thursday 17th January.
